

Chairman Peter T. King (R-NY) Visits the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC)

(Tuesday, Feb. 14, 2006) Today, Committee Chairman Peter T. King (R-NY) toured the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC) in Northern Virginia. Chairman King toured the NCTC 24/7 operations center and met with NCTC Director VADM Scott Redd (USN-ret.) and his key lieutenants to discuss terrorist threats and how the NCTC is aligned to support the war on terrorism. The NCTC was launched in Dec. 2004 to oversee and coordinate the analysis and integration of all terrorism intelligence.

Chairman King is briefed in the National Counterterrorism Center's Operations Center by NCTC Deputy Director for Current Support & Requirements Don Loren (right) and NCTC Director VADM Scott Redd (USN-ret, center).

House Committee on Homeland Security Chairman Peter T. King (R-NY) meets with Don Loren, Deputy Director for Current Support & Requirements for the National Counterterrorism Center (NCTC), in NCTC's 24/7 Operations Center. Terrorism-related intelligence from throughout the US Government flows into the Chairman King and Director of the National Counterterrorism Center VADM Scott Redd (USN-ret, right) examine the work of an NCTC analyst.

Chairman King and NCTC senior analyst Barbara Sude

Chairman Peter King and NCTC Director VADM Scott Redd